

PUB QUIZ - MEDICAL HISTORY ROUND

Guest Round 2 by George Marshall Medical Museum

Question 1. Which organ was first transplanted successfully?

Question 2. What would a phrenologist do to determine your personality traits?

Question 3. Penicillin is known as the first modern antibiotic. In which war did it first save thousands of lives?

Question 4. In which decade was the first heart transplant?

Question 5. In which century did the Germ Theory of disease begin?

Question 6. Robert Liston was a pioneering Scottish surgeon. How many people were killed in one of his most famous surgeries? Hint: it's more than one!

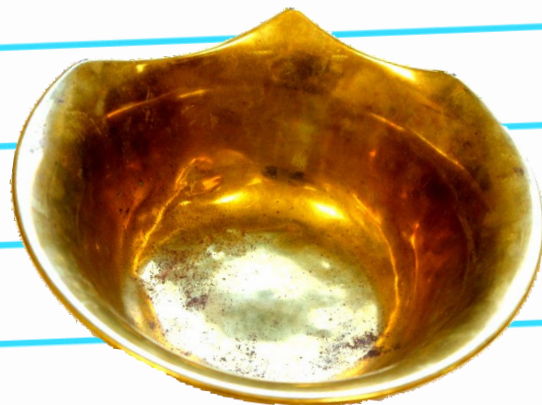

Question 7. Where was the British Medical Association founded?

Question 8. In which century were anaesthetics invented?

Question 9. Who is known as the Lady with the Lamp?

Question 10. Who discovered Penicillin?

Guess the Mystery Object:

1. Liver. 2. Read the bumps on your skull. 3. Second World War. 4. 1860s. 5. Nineteenth. 6. Three. 7. Worcester. 8. Nineteenth. 9. Florence Nightingale. 10. Alexander Fleming. Mystery Object: Bleeding Bowl.